HISTORY OF WEBSITE

have come a long way since the beginning. While the beginning of the Internet can be traced back to the 1950's, the World Wide Web was originally proposed by Tim Berners-Lee in 1989. Two years later, on August 6, 1991, his very first web page went live. It outlined how to create web pages and explained hypertext. The image below shows what it looked like in 1992 – a simple, static webpage with no pictures and basic font. You don't see that very much

Today there are more than 2 billion websites, and by the time you finish reading this article there will be thousands more. It's estimated that there are 547,200 new websites added to the World Wide Web every day. Although, only about 400 million of those sites are actively in use.

What is its magic?

The main problem with quotes on the internet is that sometimes they're not true.
